God's words of life on fatherhood

We have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live! Our fathers disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his holiness.

Hebrews 12: 9-10.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates. -- Deuteronomy 6: 5-9.

Questions for reflection

Who shut the sea within doors, when it burst forth from the womb?

Read the entire speech from out of the whirlwind, chapters 38-41 in Job.

- What do you learn about the mystery of suffering?

The one who is in Christ is a new creation.

- How does it affect you when people view you according to your potential instead of through your faults?

“Teacher, doesn’t matter to you that we are going to drown?”

- When have you believed you were “drowning”, only to find yourself in the arms of safety?
- What does this teach you about faith?

FAITH RESPONSE:

God makes all things possible: life, love, beauty, hope. Resolve to live more gratefully, giving praise and thanks to God for every good thing that comes your way.

Father's Day: As you know, Father's Day is Sunday June 21st. It is on this day that all fathers are honored. However, as you may not know, or perhaps forgot, this day also has been designated by the General Synods of our Church as the day that a special collection is taken for the Clergy Pension Fund. Therefore as you remember your father, grandfather, or great grandfather on June 21st, please also remember the clergy of our Church with a contribution to the Clergy Pension Fund so that this Fund can continue, and possibly be able to raise, the monthly payment to those who have given so much of their lives to our Church.
