August 08, 2010. Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The Rev. Gregory Mludzik, Pastor.

Raymond Bielski, Parish Chairman Dawn Wassman, Music Minister

Looking back to our past, we remember people we have met. Some of them hold a prominent place in our memory. They are people who have meant something to us: our parents, a parish priest, a school teacher, an aunt or uncle, a close friend, or someone who helped us make a difficult decision, one perhaps that determined the course in life we have chosen. The latter may have been a friend who stood by us in dark moments of life or a teacher who with patience and understanding convinced us to finish our education. We are grateful to those people, and we realize that we would be different persons if we would not have met them.

Suppose you would not have met Christ? What would be your outlook on life? It is difficult to visualize this since we are part of a culture that is so deeply rooted in the Judeo-Christian tradition. Even without knowing it, many live by Christian values. But without Christ in our lives we would be entirely different. Again using the symbolism of bread, the Bible readings bring out what Christ means to us. "Taste and see how good the Lord is; happy the man who takes refuge in him."

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice...

- In what circumstance has your faith been most seriously tested?

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.

- In your life, how many dreams have become realities so far?

"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom."

Jesus tells us we don't have to be afraid. Which aspects of your life are given to fear, and which to faith?

Faith Response

We may have good reasons not to trust ourselves. But we have every reason under heaven to trust in God. We can't control the hour of our death, but we can control who we are when we get there. Plan ahead.
