May 29, 2011. Sixth Sunday of Easter. Ascension of the Lord.

The Rev. Gregory Mludzik, Pastor.

Raymond Bielski, Parish Chairman Dawn Wassman, Music Minister

Did you ever meet a person who told you bluntly that he/she did not believe in love? Social workers, prison chaplains, teachers in both ghetto and middle-class high schools meet such persons all the time. People who do not believe in love often have a sad history behind them. It may be a broken home, parents neglecting them, friends cheating and lovers double crossing them. Where love was expected, rejection was received! The result is that entirely negative outlook of the lonesome and unhappy outcast. Today's Liturgy deals with love of God and fellow humans. God loves you but it does not make sense even to mention this if the addressee does not believe in love at all. Love is something that must be learned and experienced from early infancy. It must be developed and fostered first on the human level; only then can it be given its religious dimension of God and the neighbor. It is so important that all of us who must be witnesses of Christianity make outsiders first believe in our love on the human level. Only then can they believe in God's love.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them.

- When have you known the “wrong” person to get the right answer about Jesus?

Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts.

- Is it possible to sanctify the Lord in a corner of your heart, and use the rest for other purposes?

In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me.

- Where have you seen Jesus so far today?
- Where might Jesus be waiting for you?
